

BIOGRAPHY

LTC Troy N. Morton

LTC Troy Morton left his hometown to attend Basic Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri in October 1991. After completing training he served in the Florida National Guard 124th Light Infantry. He received a direct commission in 1999 and served as a Treatment Platoon Leader until transitioning to active Army in July of 2000, to begin a Podiatric Surgical residency. LTC Morton graduated from Brigham Young University obtaining a Bachelor's Degree in Developmental Psychology with a Pre-med emphasis. Upon graduation he received the Brigham Award. He attended Podiatric Medical School Barry University Miami Florida and received his Doctorate of Podiatric Medicine in 2000.

After completing Residency training LTC Morton served as Chief of Podiatric Surgery 121 General Hospital, Seoul Korea. He would leave Korea to serve as Chief Podiatric Surgery Reynolds Army Community Hospital. LTC Morton then proceeded to Womack Army Medical Center where he completed additional rear-foot and ankle surgical training from 2007-2009. Following the completion of this training LTC Morton became Chief of Podiatric Surgery Womack Army Medical Center, participating in the resident selection process as well as serving as an attending physician for the residency program. While at FT Bragg, LTC Morton deployed to Forward Operating Base Cropper (Camp Cropper) Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom with the 31st Combat Support Hospital. In 2011 LTC Morton returned to Reynolds Army Community Hospital to serve as the Chief of Department of Surgery from 2011-2015. LTC Morton transitioned to FT Stewart, GA where he would become the first Army Podiatrist to serve as Deputy Commander Surgical Services.

LTC Morton is a graduate of Command and General Staff College, Intermediate Level Education resident course, Redstone Arsenal. His awards include the Army Meritorious Service Medal (three oak leaf clusters); the Army Commendation Medal (oak leaf cluster); and the Army Achievement Medal (two oak leaf clusters). He is a member of the Order of Military Merit.

He serves as the Commander for the United States Army Health Clinics Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany in Kaiserslautern and Baumholder.